Redwood Heading:

Materialism

Today in class , as a pre-Christmas break treat, you saw a film entitled How the Grinch Stole Christmas. The message of the story has to do with understanding the true meaning of Christmas. It also makes the point that there are more important things in life than material goods. Do your think our modern-day 21st century society has become too materialistic? Why or why not?